Other Business:

Christian Cobb, who owns a lot on East Haynes Street, stated he has a concern about access to his lot with the way the new parking and flower beds are being installed. The Mayor and Council Members then discussed the concerns and asked Public Works Director to get a cost estimate from the project engineer to change the plan design.

Council Member Watts left the meeting at 5:30 p.m.

Betty Pinkston, 507 Martin Luther King Jr Ave, stated someone has been dumping items on Richard Turners' lot next to her. Ms. Pinkston added there are tree limbs hanging over in her yard from the adjacent lot. She also suggested that a red light be placed at the 5 points intersection. Building Official Larson will look into the illegal dumping and Chief Cuyler will look at increasing road patrol in this area.

Dianne Hilson, 502 Martin Luther King Jr Ave, stated that someone had knocked the road signs down on Newman-Turner Street and also the bushes coming out from the stop sign are blocking visibility and need to be trimmed back. Public Works Director Eubanks will look into this.

ADJOURNMENT

With no further business, Mayor Andrews adjourned the meeting.
