Judy McCorkle, City Administrator

Mayor Andrews called the working session to order at 4:00 p.m

Recognitions:

Mayor Andrews stated that the Fire Chief Russell Riner's mother, former Mayor Pro Tem Martha Riner, passed away today. Mayor Andrews stated that he had a request from the Library Board to be voted on during the regular meeting to appoint Dianne Mathis for another three-year term beginning January 1, 2020 – December 31, 2023.

Police Chief Cuyler reviewed the January report for the Police Department and Animal Control.

Electric Director Poole stated that the schedule of fees would be on the regular agenda and that he would be adding the fees for LED bulbs for security lights, stating this would save the City money over time.

Public Works Director Eubanks stated that one of the six aerators at the Treatment Plant needs to be replaced. The cost of the new aerator would be $8,100. Director Eubanks also stated that on the regular agenda is a correction from last meeting for the approval for an invoice to be paid to Shockley Plumbing for an emergency repair to slip line the sewer on North Harris Street. Director Eubanks stated that the invoice for this repair was on the previous agenda and was awarded to the wrong contractor. Director Eubanks then gave the council an update on all the public works projects going on. Administrator McCorkle stated that maybe in lieu of the next working session Director Eubanks could show the council the new Treatment Plant upgrades.

Community Development Director Larson stated he is recommending adding a fee to the schedule of fees for a Certificate of Occupancy when it is not associated with a permit.

Economic Development Director Simpson thanked the Mayor and Council Member Brown for meeting and touring the opportunity sites downtown for murals.

Attorney Howard stated that the deed for the North Harris property has been signed so progress should be made soon. Attorney Howard also stated that Judge Evans was back and recovered from his recent procedure.
